Tours (TR)

Monday, October 7 Tour 1:00-2:30 pm

2:30-4:00 pm

DOLLY THE TROLLEY: Cost $2.00. All aboard Dolly the Trolley for a 50 minute narrated tour of historic Fort Scott! You travel the brick streets to drive through Gunn Park, see Victorian Mansions, witness the solemn stillness of US National Cemetery #1, and learn about the famous (and infamous) people who have lived in Fort Scott.

Tuesday, October 8 Tour 9:00-10:00 am

GORDEN PARKS: Cost $2.00. A favorite son of Fort Scott and of Kansas. Gordon Parks left Fort Scott as a young man to become the first African American Photographer for Life Magazine. Parks went on to write and direct the autobiographical novel and film “The Learning Tree” right here in Fort Scott. With his success, Fort Scott is home of the largest collections of his photography in the entire world.

LOWELL MILKEN CENTER FOR UNSUNG HEROES: Cost $2.00 Walk the streets of the Ghetto in Poland with Irena Sendler. Hear the jeering crowd as you walk into Central High School in Little Rock, AK. Incredible stories of Unsung Hero’s will cause you to stop and think. “Have I done enough?” Student based projects are on display in a museum like atmosphere. The Lowell Milken Center is home to the “Life in a Jar” project and is true gem of Fort Scott, and the State of Kansas.

10:00-11:30 am

FORT SCOTT NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE: (WALKING TOUR) 11 original building dot the Fort grounds as you travel back through time to Bleeding Kansas, the Civil War and the maturing of the nation. Part of the National Park Service. Cost $2.00
