

Kansas Association For Family And Community Education

*The mission of Family and Community Education is strengthening individuals, families and communities through:
Continuing Education
Developing Leadership
Community Action*

National Association for Family and Community Education,

The National Association for Family and Community Education is composed of FCE members in affiliated states.

Kansas Association for Family and Community Education

The Kansas Association for Family and Community Education is composed of County FCEs and Individual members. Kansas FCE is the link to the National Association for Family and Community Education.

The Kansas FCE elects officers and appoints committees to handle the affairs of the organization.

Area Family and Community Education

Area Directors serve as liaison between County FCE Council and Kansas FCE. Each area also has an Area Educational Program Committee to serve as liaison between the County FCE Educational Program Committee and state Educational Program Committee.

Each Area FCE is composed of FCE County Council Presidents in the Area, Area Director, Area Educational Committee and State Board of Director members in the area.

Purpose

- To serve as the link between the Kansas FCE Board and County FCE Councils.
- To strengthen County FCE Councils.
- To provide opportunities to communicate concerns to KAFCE Board of Directors.
- Provide opportunities to develop leaders.

County Family and Community Education Council

Each county FCE Council is composed of representatives from county FCEs.

Purpose

- To coordinate the educational programs, projects and activities of the FCEs within a county.
- To serve as the link between the Area FCE Council and County FCEs.

FCE – Family and Community Education

FCEs are organized groups of members who join together to participate in educational programs developed by the Kansas FCE Educational Program Committee which are provided with the assistance of the K-State Research and Extension Family and Consumer Sciences specialists to enrich families through educational programs, leadership development and community action.

Purpose

- To enhance the personal development of individual FCE members.
- To deliver educational programs to membership and other individuals.
- To support the mission of FCE.